If you're dreaming of a quintessential Vermont wedding, look no further than the Quechee Inn at Marshland Farm.

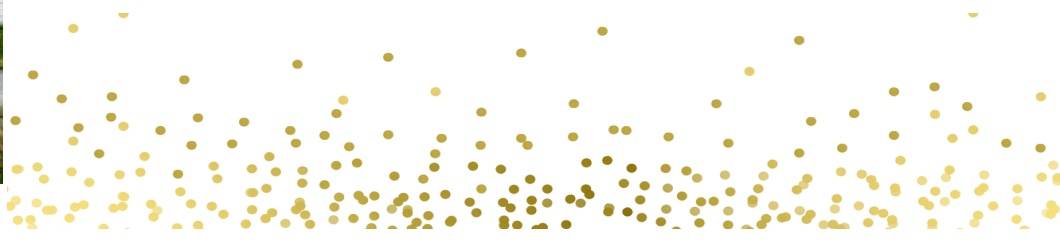

Welcome to the Quechee Inn at Marshland Farm

The Quechee Inn at Marshland Farm is a premier wedding location in Vermont. With a backdrop of the Ottauquechee River and lush green meadows, wedding guests will find exceptional cuisine and spirits as well as friendly, unsurpassed service from our staff.

Our 25-room inn is exclusive to you for the weekend to celebrate and dance the night away nestled between pristine meadows and a historic red barn. It's a wonderful place for family and friends to gather. Whether it's a leisurely walk to the Quechee Gorge or a ruthless game of cornhole on the front lawn, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

From the picturesque ceremony locations to the thoughtfully prepared food made with local ingredients, Quechee Inn weddings are an experience you'll wish you could relive again and again.

The Quechee Inn offers you:

Stunning Ceremony Locations

The scenic outdoor ceremony locations are brimming with timeless Vermont charm, featuring grand hardwood trees, lush green meadows, riverfront views and a quintessential white rail fence.

Excellent Food

Enjoy thoughtfully prepared cuisine from Executive Chef Ryan S. Cheney made with fresh products from our local partners.

Elegant Receptions

The tented brick patio, accommodating 75-200 guests can adapt into countless configurations. The adjustable sides open to views of the meadow or slide shut to provide protection from inclement weather.

On-site Accommodations

With twenty-five beautiful guest rooms on-site, guests can travel with ease and comfort. Each room provides historical ambiance with modern convenience and amenities.

Top-notch Service

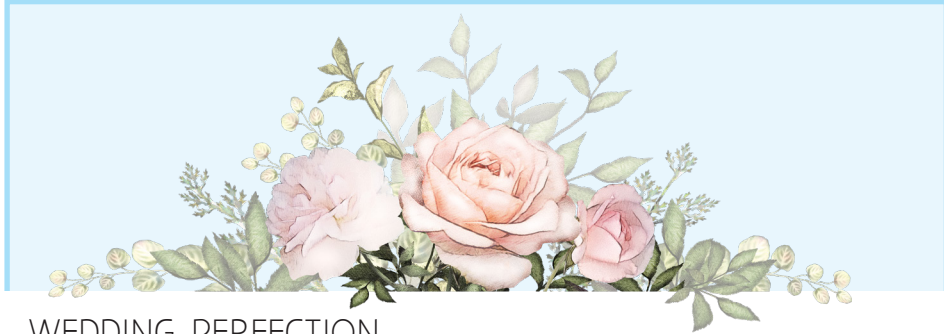

Our wedding coordinator and professional staff are here to assist you every step of the way. Let us provide advice as you plan. Our on-site coordinator will handle the details day-of so you're free to focus on every moment of your wedding.

Rehearsal Dinners & Farewell Brunches

Our rehearsal dinners and farewell breakfasts are fun, relaxed affairs. Whether you chose a backyard BBQ menu or a New England style buffet, the food is going to be amazing. Keeping everything in one location provides convenience for you and your guests.

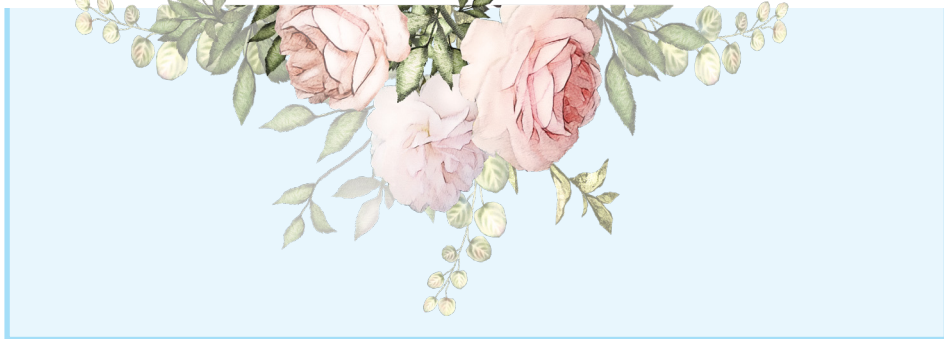

What past couples are saying...

WEDDING PERFECTION

I could not possibly say enough nice things about our wedding at the Quechee Inn. First off, the setting is classic Vermont at its finest... stunning open fields, white fences, giant old trees, and a pond across the street. It's perfect for guests to enjoy but also to set the backdrop for really special photographs.... we couldn't have been happier with our wedding at the Quechee Inn and would not have changed a thing; if you want a well organized, authentic Vermont wedding with five star food; this is your place!

THE WEDDING OF OUR DREAMS

We just got married at the Quechee Inn on May 25th, and it was the best weekend of our lives! The Quechee Inn provides a beautiful and quaint New England experience, completely personalized to each couple. It could not have been more accommodative and over-the-top excited about making our ambitious dreams a reality. Every single member of the team, from the housekeepers, to the servers, to the bartenders, were incredible, constantly going above and beyond their job descriptions to make it the most special weekend. Every single detail we imagined was brought to life. If you are considering the Quechee Inn for your wedding, look no further. It will be the best choice you'll make!

THE BEST IMAGINABLE

We are so so happy we chose the Quechee Inn as our venue. With planning, they were transparent with pricing (which we felt was all very reasonable), easy to work with, responsive to e-mails and flexible...All of the staff were wonderful throughout. The food was amazing (got many many compliments on both the rehearsal dinner and reception meal). Ultimately, we felt that the inn allowed us to just enjoy and savor in our day without having any last minute issues or surprises. Would 100% recommend to anyone looking to get married

COULD NOT BE HAPPIER

From the minute we walked in until we left, the staff made everyone feel special. Our guests could not stop complimenting the gorgeous venue, delicious food, and incredible staff. We keep hearing how our wedding was one of the best weddings our friends and family have attended, and that is 100% thanks to the Quechee Inn and all they did for us. We could not be happier with our choice and are jealous for anyone having their wedding here in the future - we wish we could do it over and over again!!!

Things to do in the area

At the Quechee Inn at Marshland Farm, you and your guests are in the heart of all that Vermont has to offer. They can walk directly from the inn down to the magnificent Quechee Gorge in an easy 15 minute hike, relax in an Adirondack chair breathing in the crisp air or unwind with a book in our common room.

And nearby...

Your friends and family are here to celebrate your wedding but there's lots for them to do before the festivities begin!

- Simon Pearce: Glass blowing demonstrations and the flagship store for the renowned glass company
- VINS (Vermont Institute of Natural Science): See birds of prey up-close or get a bird's eye view of the area from the canopy walk
- Quechee Gorge Village: An eclectic assortment of small stores including Cabot Quechee Store, The Vermont Toy Museum, and more!
- Sugarbush Farms: Handmade cheese, maple syrup, jams, mustards and spreads, plus a maple syrup house display
- King Arthur Flour: Hard to find baking ingredients, mixes, bake ware, café and school. Delicious bakery items!
- Long Trail Brewery: Riverside microbrew tastings and lunch
- Artisans Park: With a sculpture garden, brewery, distillery, cheese store and more, there's something for everyone
- Billings Farm & Museum: Local first class working dairy farm operating with a museum of Vermont's rural heritage
- Woodstock Village: Boutique shopping, local cafes, art galleries
- Hanover Village: Home to Dartmouth College, the Hood Museum and much more
